In the world of watch dealers and collectors, Giorgia Mondani stands out. Not only is she a woman, but she is also a watchmaker. She is the daughter of a watch expert, and she has found her own interest in timepieces.

"I've always loved the way time moves in this business. There's a certain magic to it. It's not just about the watches, but about the people who love them. It's a passion that runs deep."

Ms. Mondani said she was inspired to start her own watchmaking business after working for her father, Francoise Mondani, in his watchmaking business in Geneva, Switzerland. She started her own business in 2014, and she has since become a successful watchmaker and collector.

The new watchmaker mostly makes Rolex and Omega watches. She is a watch collector and a watchmaker. She is wearing a Rolex watch. She is also a watchmaker. She is wearing a Rolex watch. She is also a watchmaker. She is wearing a Rolex watch.

Heritage
Giorgia Mondani, like her parents, specializes in Rolex. But her favorite watches have green details, like the dial of the Day-Date model (left) that her husband gave her on their wedding day.
